ALDER & WREN

COLLECTION 01 · FALL

Ten looks for a Chicago autumn. Wool cut long and close to the body. A camel coat heavy enough to hold its line in the wind off the lake. Silk washed until it falls quiet. Knits that sit under a coat like a second skin.

The collection was designed in Chicago for the weeks when the city turns to limestone, brick and grey water. It is shown here on the streets it was made for: the Gold Coast, the West Loop, Lincoln Park, Logan Square, Wicker Park and the lakefront.
