

Start here

Open this first: Blast — press play.

It's yours — and it's a blast. "Blast" is a full funk-pop party record: a fat bouncy bassline, four-on-the-floor pocket, bright horns, and a shout-it-back "BLAST!" hook you'll catch on the first listen — with a horn breakdown in the bridge that strips it back and drops it right into the final choruses. Two minutes eleven, verse to chorus to bridge to chorus, grinning from the very first bar.

Open "Blast — press play" first — that's the record playing over its own sleeve, ready to hit play and send to anyone. The track on its own, the cover art, and the lyrics are all in the kit beside it. Turn it up.

What is in the kit

Films play in any video player (QuickTime, VLC, or a browser); audio plays in any music player; PDFs open in any reader (Preview, Acrobat, or a browser); images open in any image viewer or browser.

1 Blast — press play (open this first)

`song/blast-play.mp4`

Your record — hit play. The full 2:11 funk-pop track playing over its sleeve, ready to share anywhere.

2 Blast — the track (MP3)

song/blast.mp3

The audio on its own — drop it in any player or playlist.

Filed under Extras

Reference and supporting material.

3 Blast — the lyrics

Extras/lyrics.pdf

The words, as recorded — sing along.

4 Blast — the cover

Extras/blast.cover.png

The sleeve art — use it as the artwork wherever the track lives.