

Cliff House, Malibu

Hicham, here it is: your Malibu cliff house, whole. Cantilever House on the Point Dume bluff, hung fourteen feet over the Pacific on a single thin roof line. The film is the star \u2014 open it first: you come in low over the ocean toward the cliff, up the enclosed drive, through the threshold, and then the release, that glass-corner great room floating over the water at golden hour, out to the kitchen, the dining, the primary suite, and the pool terrace as the sun goes cobalt over the drop. One house, one continuous move, scored to the walk itself. The concept book is the keepsake beside it \u2014 the site, the plans drawn to read, and every room, at the register of a real architectural monograph. The three floor plans ship alongside so you can hold them on their own. It's yours.

1. The Walkthrough Film (film/cantilever-walkthrough.mp4): Open this first. Your walk through the house, scored — in low over the Pacific, up the drive, through the threshold, into the great room, and out to the pool as the sun goes down. 46 seconds, one house, start to finish.
2. Cantilever House — The Concept Book (book/cliff-house.pdf): The keepsake volume — the whole vision as a designed architectural book. The site on its cliff, the plans drawn to read, and every room, spread by spread. 19 pages.

Filed under Extras (reference and supporting material):

- Floor Plan — Main Level (Extras/plan-main-level.png): The public house, drawn: the stone spine, the great room, kitchen and dining holding the west glass, the cantilever reaching over the drop.
- Floor Plan — Lower Level (Private House) (Extras/Floor Plan - Lower Level/plan-lower-south.png): The private house one level down: the primary suite, the bath cut into stone, the ocean-facing guest rooms.
- Floor Plan — Lower Level (The Retreat) (Extras/Floor Plan - Lower Level/plan-lower-wellness.png): The wellness level — the quiet retreat cut into the cliff.
