

Flipping Tables — Original (Male Vocal)

It's all here, Hicham, and the bench is down to what matters. "Done Setting the Table" — the song, the words beside it, and now the cover: the table mid-tip, title in white with TABLE in red. Play it, read along, and the whole thing takes as one download whenever you want. If a line ever wants a nudge or you want the cover pushed harder, say the word.
