— your Monday morning song.

Here's your cover, Hicham — it's on your wall beside the track and ready in the kit. A red-suited strut, horns bursting out in sunburst, a coffee cup throwing off sparks, all on a blazing 7am sunrise. "MONDAY KIND OF VIBE" set big and bold — it reads like a real single sleeve. The song's still the main event; the cover now sits right beside it. If you ever want a different color key, a photographic treatment, or a wide crop for a streaming header, just say the word.
