

Kitty's Friday — lyrics (v2, enriched)

Style: upbeat cheeky pop, funky guitar and clap groove, warm male lead vocal with a wink, bright horns on the chorus, hand-claps, Bruno Mars meets Lily Allen tongue-in-cheek. Tempo ~110 bpm, major key, playful.

Client additions woven in: "first time, every time" (inside joke, kept intact), "Kitty Perfect" (nickname, tied to her perfectionism), and the playful smugness of him leaning happily into her flawlessness. No flowers, no ring, no gift/proposal imagery anywhere (client correction 2026-09-23).

[Verse] Five days of meetings, your inbox on fire, Running on coffee and pure holy wire, But you looked at the calendar, circled the day, Took the whole Friday and threw it away.

[Pre Chorus] Not for a spa, not to sleep in, oh no, You cleared the whole schedule 'cause you already know —

[Chorus] I'm needy, I'm needy, and baby I own it, You booked off a Friday and honestly, I've shown it, I want the whole weekend, I want it all, And you took the day off just to answer my call. Kitty Perfect, oh Kitty, you saw me coming, Cleared the whole Friday and kept the heart humming, I'm too much, I know it, you love it, it's true, Who takes a day off? Only somebody like you.

[Verse] You'll iron the pillowcase, straighten the shelf, Everything flawless, that's just how you felt, Kitty Perfect, you fold every corner just so, And I take advantage — well, baby, you know.

[Pre Chorus] First time, every time, that's the promise I make, You cleared the whole Friday for every mistake I won't make —

[Chorus] I'm needy, I'm needy, and baby I own it, You booked off a Friday and honestly, I've shown it, I want the whole weekend, I want it all, And you took the day off just to answer my call. Kitty Perfect, oh Kitty, you saw me coming, Cleared the whole Friday and kept the heart humming, I'm too much, I know it, you love it, it's true, Who takes a day off? Only somebody like you.

[Bridge] Some people are easy, they don't ask for much, I want the whole weekend, the talk and the touch. First time, every time, you already know, And I take advantage, and you love it, so — A brutal week done and you gave me the best, The whole of your Friday, and none of the rest.

[Chorus] I'm needy, I'm needy, and baby I own it, You booked off a Friday and honestly, I've shown it, I want the whole weekend, I want it all, And you took the day off just to answer my call. Kitty Perfect, oh Kitty, you saw me coming, Cleared the whole Friday and kept the heart humming, I'm too much, I know it, you love it, it's true, Who takes a day off? Only somebody like you.

[Outro] Only somebody like you. Kitty Perfect, only somebody like you.
