SUNDAY MORNING DRIVE

Start here

Sunday Morning Drive — the version you picked, cleaned down to the release. Everything's on your workbench: the song (mp3) for the car and the playlist, the playable video (mp4) with the cover on screen, the cover art, the lyric sheet on one clean page, and a single designed Start here that walks you through the box. The duplicate's gone, the lyric orphan is gone, and the Start here now reads at the caliber the rest of it does. Windows down.
